TO ALL COMPETITORS

Congratulations to everyone who completed the 1996 ONE FM / WESTERN WEEKENDER Nepean Triathlon including our two Victorian winners Tim Bentley and Joanne King. Also to local Trent Chapman and Robyn Roocke from South Australia for providing some close competition.

Thanks to all our Sponsors, particularly One FM, Western Weekender, Panthers, and our leg sponsors Saucony, Universe Cycles and Lightfoot. Please support them as they are responsible for ensuring that the Nepean Triathlon continues to be the best value triathlon in Australia.

Thanks also to the many sporting and community clubs that supply the 400 first aid officials and course marshals on the day. This year a further $11200 was distributed to these many organisations. Thanks also to Triathlon NSW for providing our race judges and officiating on the bike leg.

Congratulations to our six 15 time finishers - Greg Chapman, Glen Mallard, Peter Smith, Trevor Hamilton, Greg Davies and Eugene Irvin and also thanks to Rod Rogers for presenting our first local awards to Trent Chapman and Lisa Fletcher.

We hope you enjoyed our race and hope to see you again on the first Sunday in December 1997.

BENTLEY DRIVES HOME TO WIN

TIM Bentley won the Nepean Triathlon for the fifth time in a row on Sunday, leading home a field of more than 1000 athletes, including more than 300 locals.

Penrith's Trent Chapman finished second, after being the first competitor out of the water, and Springwood's Ben Artup was third, after taking the lead at the end of the cycle leg. But Bentley powered past the local pair on the run to win comfortably. In the womens event

Vic triathlete wins Nepean

By AMANDA LULHAM

VICTORIAN triathlete Tim Bentley kept at bay a charge by a local young gun to win his fifth Nepean triathlon, the oldest and biggest race in NSW, at Penrith yesterday.

Challenged by talented youngster and local Trent Chapman who won a bronze in the world junior championships earlier this year, Bentley said he was forced to "dig deep" in the final run to shake off his tenacious rival.

"The young kids were pushing pretty hard and I had to chase them for a while before I was able to catch them" said the run specialist from Geelong.

"In the final run leg Trent went with me for 4km and I had to put him in the pain area before I could drop him."

Bentley eventually crossed the finish line of the 1km swim, 31km cycle and 10km run race in 1hr31min26sec with Chapman coming home in 1:31:52 and third place going to Ian Roff, 35sec behind the winner.

The 34-year-old Bentley raced the Nepean Triathlon as a warm-up to the Australian sprint titles in Melbourne in two weeks' time. He is hoping a top placing there will earn him a coveted wild card entry into next year's five-event St George Triathlon Grand Prix.

Joanne King was the winner, with Robyn Roocke second and Melissa Ashton third.

Local triathlete 'over the moon'

The weather was perfect. The local crowd stirred with excitement. And Penrith's triathlete Trent Chapman did not disappoint them.

First competitor out of the water in the 1 km swim in 15th Nepean Triathlon held last Sunday, Trent was cheered on by an enthusiastic crowd to finish second outright in a time of 1 hour 31 minutes 21 seconds.

"I'm over the moon," said a happy Trent, to race director Warwick Brennan at the finishline.

Trent said it was the support from the local crowd which was the real "buzz."

But there was no rest for the local hero. Shortly after the race he was shuffled on to a waiting bus headed for the Australian Triathlon Coaching Clinic at Jindabyne to commence training for his next big event.

His friend and rival, Ben Artup, also performed extremely well in the Nepean, taking the lead towards the end of the 40 km cycle ride to lead the 1000 strong field into the 10 km run.

However it was Victorian's champion Tim Bentley's day. He is the all time master of the Nepean course and seemed to know just where to be, right throughout the race. He was third out of the water, sixth off the bike and ran like there was no tomorrow. As he moved towards the lead the only one to go with him was Penrith's Chapman and they ran shoulder to shoulder for what would of seemed an eternity to Chapman. Then Bentley put in a surge to make the winning break and came home to take his fifth Nepean title.

It was a Victorian double with world junior triathlon champion Joanne King taking her first Nepean title in a time of 1:42:29. South Australian Robyn Roocke was second in a time of 1:44:41 followed by Melissa Ashton of Connells Point in a time of 1:45:11. King and Roocke came off the bike together, however, King soon made her intentions known with a strong opening burst to make a decisive gap on to set up the win.

First local male was Chapman followed by Artup with Leigh Birch from Oakhurst making third place.

In the local ladies section, Penrith's Lisa Fletcher won from Tina Carter, who also lives at Penrith and Naomi Boddy from Emu Plains came in third place.

Race Director Ched Towas said they were pleased with the amount of female triathletes competing in the Nepean this year as it was felt that the level of female participation had been falling in previous years.

Other locals to feature in the age group award were: 1st 19 & Under Male - Brendon Trotter, Warrimoo 1hr 39:44, 2nd 19 & Under Male - Leigh Chapman, Penrith 1hr 39:46, 1st 19 & Under Women - Melanie Kneeler 2:12:36, 2nd 30-34 Male - Stephen Jack, Penrith 1:40:59 and 2nd 45-49 Male - Graham Smith, Wallacia 1:47:17.

Wood's latest trial, his fitness

By TIM RUMBLE

AFTER working in one of the most high pressured jobs in Australia, Justice James Wood spent his day off competing in one of the most gruelling sports known to man.

Just over 24 hours before reopening the controversial paedophilia inquiry, the 55 year old was on the banks of the Nepean River yesterday morning nervously awaiting the start of the Nepean triathlon.

For the hard-working head of the police royal commission, competing in the triathlon was a way of releasing the tension.

"It clears the cobwebs," Justice Wood said.

"It really does break the tension and clear the cobwebs, especially on such a beautiful course."

At 6.30am Justice Wood joined 27 fellow competitors in the over 50 category of the long-running event as they took off for the first stage of the triathlon -- a 1km swim.

Once out of the water, the super-fit man then had to contend with a 31km bike ride and a 10km run along with the other 999 competitors.

Justice Wood has missed only one Nepean triathlon in the 15 year history of the event.

The triathlete said he was not "expecting too much" from the race. He finished 22nd.
